THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

If you're feeling low, don't despair. The sun has a sinking spell every night, but it comes back up every morning.

TODAY'S LITURGY

Our celebration today is filled with people who hear and respond to God's call. Even our liturgy is filled with the pattern of call and response. The responsorial psalm is the response to the first reading; the Creed is our proclamation of faith in response to God's word; the Liturgy of the Eucharist is our prayer of praise and thanksgiving in response to the Liturgy of the Word, Let us pray today that our lives will be our response to the call that we hear from God during our celebration.

SUNDAY—FEBRUARY 7

Sir Thomas More—saint, statesman and martyr—was born on February 7, 1478, on Milk Street in London....Pope Pius IX died on this date (1878), ending the longest reign (31 years) of any pope in history....Novelist Charles Dickens, born on this date in 1812, celebrated his 24th birthday in 1836 by publishing sketches by Boz....Another novelist the American Sinclair Lewis, was also born today (1885); his Babbit contains this observation: "Advertising is a valuable economic factor because it is the cheapest way of selling goods, particularly if the goods are worthless."

PARENTING POINTERS

Unless you've been living in a cave, you and your children have been inundated with news about the earthquake in Haiti these last few weeks. Perhaps you and any older children have donated to the relief work, but what can a baby or toddler do? Not much. They are with us to hug and remind us that life is fragile. Pray again for parents and children who no longer have each other to hug.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Jesus was enjoying a moment of peace when the crowd "pressed in on Him" ending His quiet moment. Just when we think we can enjoy a peaceful moment at home these is a demand for our time and presence. Notice Jesus did not get upset. Finding and enjoying time for self and family is an art worth planning and designing.

WELCOME

Welcome to St. Januarius, and thank you for coming today! Whether you are a familiar face or a first time visitor, we are happy to have you with us. Thanks to the generosity of members and visitors like you, we are able to worship here in a fitting and beautiful way. If you have any questions about what we have to offer here at St. Januarius, just call us at (412)793-4439. Thanks again for being with us today.

CHURCH ETIQUETTE

To leave immediately after Communion is to treat church like a fast food restaurant where we come and go as we please. We live in a fast-paced world where we seem to be hurrying from place to place. But in God's presence, we need to make every attempt to fight this pressure to move to the next thing on the day's agenda. Eat and run at McDonald's-but stay in church and give thanks for God's precious gifts.

PARISH SHARE

Our 2009 Parish Share Campaign has begun. Our Parish was assessed $28,667.00 which is $2,631.00 more than our 2008 assessment. I am asking you to please be aware of this and to make a sacrificial pledge to be paid over the next month. It is very important that we fulfill our obligation of supporting the diocese. So please be generous. Thank you. You are wonderful people. Fr. Pilarski

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

Three weeks ago, few people gave a second thought to Haiti. Today, the devastating earthquake has awakened the world to suffering and a mammoth response. Don't wait for a crisis to awaken you to underlying weaknesses in your marriage. Build a strong foundation today. Plan to attend a marriage enrichment event during February.
