TODAY'S LITURGY

Our Lenten journey nears its conclusion today. This season of penitence and reconciliation teaches us that it is never too late to return to the Lord with our whole hearts. In today's Gospel we witness God's unconditional forgiveness in Jesus Christ. How blessed are we to have such a merciful Savior! Let us give praise and thanks to God for such a precious gift.

SUNDAY—MARCH 21

American poet Phyllis McGinley was born on March 21, 1905. In her poem, THE DAY AFTER SUNDAY, she mused: "Always on Monday morning the press reports/ God as revealed to His vicars in various disguises/ Benevolent, stormy, patient or out of sorts,/God knows which God is the God God recognizes." McGinley also told the story of her little daughter who, when asked if she were to be a saint, would she prefer being a martyr, replies, "you only have to be a martyr once."....German composer Johann Sebastian Bach was also born today (1685)...And British novelist G. W. (Gary) Bellamy, born in Bristol, England, on March 21, 1935, has wittily noted "Life is a sexually transmitted disease."

PARENTING POINTERS

Whether you are a single custodial parent, a parent who visits on weekends, or a parent whose spouse is gone for long periods of time—its not easy. Summon up your courage and your friends. Ask for respite when you need it. Both you and your child will benefit.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Each day we hurl verbal stones of ridicule, criticism, name-calling and put downs and they are killers. Jesus admonishes us: "Whoever is without sin can throw the first stone." In other words, no one is qualified to throw stone. Rid your home of violence and stop the verbal stoning.

WELCOME

Welcome to St. Januarius, and thank you for coming today! Whether you are a familiar face or a first time visitor, we are happy to have you with us. Thanks to the generosity of members and visitors like you, we are able to worship here in a fitting and beautiful way. If you have any questions about what we have to offer here at St. Januarius, just call us at (412)793-4439. Thanks again for being with us today.

CHURCH ETIQUETTE

To leave immediately after Communion is to treat church like a fast food restaurant where we come and go as we please. We live in a fast-paced world where we seem to be hurrying from place to place. But in God's presence, we need to make every attempt to fight this pressure to move to the next thing on the day's agenda. Eat and run at McDonald's-but stay in church and give thanks for God's precious gifts.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

In athletic events there are score keepers so we know who the winners or losers are. Marriage is not a contest so stop keeping score. Eventually both partners must win or else the game is over.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

During the Fridays of Lent, we will have the Stations of the Cross and Benediction at 7PM.
