A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

“Father forgive them, they know not what they do.” Frequently we offended each other without being aware of it. The survival of relationships depends on our ability to forgive one another. This Holy Week imitate Jesus and forgive those who have wronged you. Stop caring resentment in your heart.

TODAY’S LITURGY

Our Lenten journey of conversion and reconciliation has brought us to this place, where we commemorate together with the Church throughout the world our Lord’s triumphant entry into Jerusalem. We carry palm branches and sing “Hosanna” remembering Jesus Christ’s passion, death, and resurrection—his saving actions as our Messiah. As we lift up those palms and our voices in praise, let us unite ourselves with his suffering and death, so that we may also share his resurrection with Easter joy.

SUNDAY—MARCH 28

French poet and novelist Marcel Pym, born March 28, 1902, once observed: “Social injustice is such a familiar phenomenon, it has a sturdy constitution, that is regularly regarded as something natural even by its victims”...American novelist Nelson Algren born today (1909) in Detroit, is the source in his novel, THE MAN WITH THE GOLDEN ARM, of that famous piece of advice, “Never play cards with a man named Doc, never eat at a place called Mom’s”....American pioneer William Byrd III was born in Virginia on March 28, 1674 (his descendent Robert is the U.S. senator from West Virginia); of colonial Virginia Byrd noted: “It was a place free from those three great scourges of mankind: Priests, Lawyers and Physicians. The people were yet too poor to maintain these learned gentlemen.”

ADORATION ON HOLY THURSDAY

There is an age-old tradition to visit the church on Holy Thursday for prayer, after evening Mass. Adoration will take place after our 6PM Mass (7-11PM). This is symbolic of Jesus asking his disciples to stay awake and pray with Him during His Agony in the Garden. Jesus is asking you the same thing.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Conceit is an unusual disease; it makes everyone sick but the one who has it.
